

1st International scientific and professional conference of Vinogradska nursing school "Innovations and challenges in education and nursing care"

17-18 October 2024.

Ulica grada Vukovara 68, Zagreb

It is our great honor and pleasure to invite you to the First scientific-professional international conference organized by the Vinogradska nursing school from Zagreb, which will be held on October 17 and 18, 2024 at the location Public Open University Zagreb, Ulica grada Vukovara 68, Zagreb.

The conference is organized as an interdisciplinary platform and is intended for all teachers, schools pedagogues and psychologists, principals of schools and librarians as well as nurses, doctors and other health professionals, all those who work with pupils and students and who improve the educational or health care system through their work. We wish to present new trends in teaching related to the application of digital tools and modern teaching methods, as well as innovations and challenges we face in health care and the education of health professionals. Eminent experts from Croatia and abroad in the field of education and health care will contribute to the work of the conference. We hope that you will contribute with your active participation so that this conference will be an example of good cooperation and a place for the exchange of knowledge and experience of experts from different disciplines.

TOPICS OF THE CONFERENCE:

1. Application of digital technology in education and health care
2. Innovations and challenges in education and nursing care
3. Examples of good practice
4. Implementation of artificial intelligence in education
5. Free topics

IMPORTANT DATES:

Online registration and submission of abstracts: March 30, 2024.

notification of acceptance of the abstracts: 15 April 2024.

Registration fee: August 30, 2024.

Abstract

When sending the abstract, authors should indicate which type of presentation they are reporting (oral presentation or poster presentation). The oral presentation can last 15 minutes. Poster presentations will be shown during each break at the conference.

Instructions for writing abstracts: the abstract is written in Croatian and English; contains up to 400 words; 4-5 keywords are listed at the end; it is written in Times New Roman font, font size 12 (headline 18-20) and delivered in two formats (word and pdf) to the e-mail address: konferencija.vinogradska@gmail.com.

Poster instructions: The poster is delivered to the e-mail address of the conference in .jpg format, 1280x720px, landscape orientation.

Lectures will be graded according to the Croatian chamber of nurses regulations, and teachers will be able to register through the EMA application, which will be notified by sending a notification via e-mail address.

The registration fee includes participation in lectures during the entire conference, a digital certificate of participation issued by e-mail and refreshments during breaks during the conference. The registration fee amounts to 20 euros for participation in the two days of the conference. It is possible to register for one day of the conference, where the registration fee is 10 euros. Payment information will be sent by e-mail.

It is possible to arrange lunch and accommodation in Zagreb for the participants. The organizers have arranged accommodation for the participants in the Central Hotel, about which the participants will be notified by e-mail after registration. You can see the accommodation on the link: <https://hotel-central.hr/>. Due to the limited number of accommodation capacities at a more favorable price for conference participants, please let us know as soon as possible if you need accommodation. Accommodation and lunch costs are paid by the participants themselves.

17 October a formal dinner will be organized for all interested participants at a price of approximately 30 euros/person. The participants pay for the dinner themselves, and they will receive the details by e-mail.
